LOCAL MATTERS

For this section light rains, clearing Tuesday night; much colder; northwesterly winds, high in the coast.

BOARD OF TRADE.—A meeting of merchants and citizens who favor the organization of a Board of Trade in this city was held at the Commercial Exchange room this morning, at which gentlemen representing nearly all the branches of business of the city were present. Mr. J. J. Jamieson was called to the chair, and Mr. Wm. M. Reardon was chosen secretary. Mr. F. A. Reed addressed the meeting, advocating the organization of a board of trade and setting forth the advantages of such an organization. He said that the merchants could then be united in a common effort to advance the city's interests, could work together as one. On his motion the chairman appointed a committee of nine to secure the names of persons of all classes to form a board of trade. The chairman appointed the following committee: Geo. Swansbury, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was discharged. Jas. Jones, colored, for vagrancy, was discharged. Several small boys, charged with throwing stones in the streets, were discharged.

Holmes, C. H. Kenny, Walter West and D. W. Lowmyer were placed in nomination for delegates and J. F. Norman, of Fairfax, and H. L. Holmes, of the county, were elected. The meeting recommended Gen. DR. LA FONZO KNOCKED OUT.—Dr. R. I. LaFonzo, an itinerant physician who has been in this city for the past few weeks, while under the influence of liquor yesterday went into a King street saloon, and becoming disagreeable was invited by the barkeeper to walk out. The barkeeper opened the door for the doctor, who, as he passed out, cursed him, when the former struck him on the side of the head, knocking the doctor one way and his sick hat another. The doctor put his hand in his hip pocket and said: "Now, d— you, do it again." The barkeeper, turning to the proprietor of the saloon, said: "I have done it once, and if I do it again he might shoot," and closing the door walked back into the saloon. The doctor walked off.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: Geo. Swansbury, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was discharged. Jas. Jones, colored, for vagrancy, was discharged. Several small boys, charged with throwing stones in the streets, were discharged.

FELL IN A WELL.—While the two little sons of Mr. Joseph Martin were minding cows on the lot northwest of the brewery yesterday evening, one of them, Joe, who is but six years old, in chasing a cow, fell in the old ice house well and came near drowning.
